Leave and Attendance Policy

Policy ID: HR-001 Version: 2.1 Effective Date: 1 October 2026

Policy Owner: Human Resources

1. Purpose

This policy defines attendance expectations, leave categories, approval requirements, and procedures for reporting absence.

2. Working Hours

Standard working hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday through Friday, with a one-hour lunch break. Employees are expected to be available during core hours from 10:30 AM to 5:30 PM.

3. Leave Categories

• Casual Leave: 12 days per calendar year for personal or short-duration needs.

• Sick Leave: 10 days per calendar year for illness or medical recovery.

• Earned Leave: 18 days per calendar year, subject to manager approval and applicable carry-forward rules.

• Unpaid Leave: May be granted when paid leave is exhausted or when circumstances require extended absence.

4. Leave Request Procedure

• Planned leave should normally be submitted at least 3 working days before the start date.

• Emergency absence must be reported to the manager as soon as reasonably possible.

• Leave is not considered approved until the manager or authorized approver confirms it.

• Employees must update the attendance system after returning from approved leave.

5. Attendance Exceptions

Repeated unexplained lateness, absence without notification, or inaccurate attendance records may be reviewed by Human Resources and may result in corrective action.

6. Frequently Asked Questions

• Who approves leave? The employee's reporting manager is the primary approver unless a different workflow is specified.

• Can sick leave be used for planned vacation? No. Sick leave should be used for genuine illness or recovery.

• What happens if I forget to submit leave? Contact the manager and HR promptly; the absence may remain unapproved until corrected.

Document status: Internal reference document for RAG testing. This synthetic policy is created for demonstration and does not represent the policy of a real organization.