Business Expense and Reimbursement Policy

Policy ID: FIN-004 Version: 2.0 Effective Date: 1 October 2026

Policy Owner: Finance Department

1. Purpose

This policy explains which business expenses are reimbursable, what approvals are required, and how employees submit claims.

2. Eligible Expenses

• Business travel that has been approved in advance.

• Reasonable accommodation and transportation expenses incurred for authorized business travel.

• Meals consumed during eligible business travel or approved business meetings.

• Business supplies and software purchased through an approved process.

• Other expenses explicitly approved by the employee's manager and Finance.

3. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

• Personal entertainment or leisure purchases.

• Fines, penalties, or expenses caused by personal misconduct.

• Upgrades or premium services without prior business approval.

• Expenses supported by altered, duplicate, or misleading receipts.

4. Claim Submission

• Expense claims should normally be submitted within 15 calendar days after the expense is incurred or the trip ends.

• Each claim must include the date, amount, business purpose, category, and supporting receipt when required.

• Expenses paid in a foreign currency should include the exchange-rate evidence required by Finance.

• Managers review the business purpose and Finance performs policy and accounting checks.

5. Approval Limits

Individual purchases above INR 25,000 require written manager approval before purchase. Purchases above INR 100,000 require additional Finance or procurement approval according to the applicable workflow.

6. Exceptions

Exceptions may be approved only by an authorized Finance leader. An exception should document the reason and supporting business need.

7. Frequently Asked Questions

• Can I submit a claim without a receipt? Only when the policy or Finance specifically permits a receipt exception.

• When should I submit travel expenses? Normally within 15 calendar days after the trip ends.

• Can personal expenses be combined with a business hotel bill? Only if the personal portion is clearly separated and the employee pays the personal amount.
