Employee Code of Conduct Policy

Policy ID: ETH-005 Version: 4.2 Effective Date: 1 October 2026

Policy Owner: Ethics and Compliance

1. Purpose

This policy establishes expected standards of professional behavior, integrity, respect, and responsible use of company resources.

2. Professional Conduct

• Employees must act honestly and professionally in dealings with colleagues, customers, suppliers, and partners.

• Employees must avoid harassment, discrimination, bullying, threats, and abusive behavior.

• Employees must protect confidential information and use company resources for legitimate business purposes.

• Employees must comply with applicable laws, regulations, and internal policies.

3. Conflicts of Interest

• Employees must disclose situations where personal interests could improperly influence business decisions.

• Outside employment or business activities must not interfere with job responsibilities or misuse company resources.

• Employees involved in procurement or hiring must disclose relevant personal relationships when they could create a conflict.

4. Gifts and Hospitality

Employees must not accept or provide gifts or hospitality that could reasonably appear to influence a business decision. Cash and cash-equivalent gifts are prohibited. Reasonable low-value business courtesies may be permitted when consistent with law and company rules.

5. Use of Company Resources

Company systems, devices, accounts, software, and data must be used responsibly. Unauthorized access, deliberate security bypasses, fraudulent activity, or misuse of company resources may result in disciplinary action.

6. Reporting Concerns

Employees are encouraged to report suspected misconduct through the designated manager, HR, Ethics and Compliance channel, or other approved reporting mechanism. Reports should be made in good faith.

7. Non-Retaliation

The company prohibits retaliation against a person who raises a concern in good faith or participates honestly in an investigation.

8. Frequently Asked Questions

• Can I report a concern anonymously? If an anonymous reporting channel is available, yes; otherwise use the designated confidential reporting process.

• What if I am unsure whether something is a conflict of interest? Disclose the situation to your manager or Ethics and Compliance for guidance.

• Does this policy apply to contractors? Contractual obligations may apply, and contractors must follow the conduct requirements communicated to them.

Document status: Internal reference document for RAG testing. This synthetic policy is created for demonstration and does not represent the policy of a real organization.
